KRIER, DIRECTORY, WEBSITE:

Krier: The KCC board agreed that the September edition of the Killingworth Krier looked great! Hats off to Karen and staff! The October edition of the Krier will be the biggest issue ever printed 28 pages. If the Krier continues to grow by leaps and bounds, the KCC may have to change the format.

KCC Directory: The cutoff to be in the 2006 KCC Business Directory is November 1, 2005. All members must be updated on their dues to be listed in the Directory. Karen will post this in the October Krier.

KCC Website: The KCC is in the process of updating its website. Each board member reviewed and made any changes necessary to their e-mail address. Karen will ask the KCC business members to review their listing for any changes in the October Krier.

EVENTS COMMITTEE:

Town Picnic: The board was very pleased with its Business Members participation at the Town Picnic's KCC booth. This is the first year the KCC booth made free advertising available to its members. Many members took advantage of this opportunity and brought flyers, business cards, pictures and samples to display. The KCC booth sold postcards and t-shirts and held a raffle. It was a success! We are very low on t-shirts and still have 4 out of the five postcard scenes available. A different KCC logo is being discussed for the next t-shirt order. Suggestions to improve the KCC booth for next year were to have extra maps and directories and additional display stands. This will be discussed further at the next meeting.

Fall Social: This year's Fall Social will be held on Wednesday, October 12, 2005 at 7:00 pm hosted by CURVES. Lesley Alderton is the owner and will be our host for the evening. Refreshments will be provided by the board members.

Tim Gannon has been quietly taking pictures of the many KCC events over the years. To make good on his time and effort, Nadine Cabrera has agreed to start a KCC photo album. Thanks Tim and Nadine!!!

Christmas in the Village: This year Christmas in the Village will be on Thursday, December 8, 2005.
