EVENTS COMMITTEE:

Christmas in the Village committee members will have a follow-up meeting on January 24th at the Killingworth Inn at 4:30 pm.

OLD BUSINESS:

Krier: The Krier continues to be a success! Karen and staff are off to a great start in 2006!

New 2006 Directories: Extra copies of the new directories will be dropped off at the Library, Town Hall, TD Bank North and True Value. Copies will also be available for the welcome wagon baskets.

Business after Hours: Unison Travel will host the next business after hours on Thursday, February 16, 2006 at 5:00 pm. Come join us for some delicious refreshments and learn about travel! Look for our newly purchased sandwich boards at the Killingworth circle to advertise upcoming events.

KCC Postal Permit: The KCC needs to have their own postal permit for Killingworth. Sue Cipollone volunteered to handle this task.

KCC Logo: Discussions have begun to change the KCC logo. Several logos were reviewed and more will follow.

NEW BUSINESS:

KCC Website: Sue Corbin will no longer be able to update our website due to her new full time position.

Peg Scofield offered to take over and revamp our website. A motion was made to have Peg Scofield manage the KCC website for $50 per month plus a $500 revamping charge. The motion passed.

Job Postings: An idea was presented to allow the KCC members to post job openings on our website. Dick Pleines will speak with Peg regarding this matter. Future details to follow.

New Members: Ideas Unlimited, a home improvement business owned by Joseph Pleines would like to join the KCC. The board voted and the new member was accepted.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 am.
